HAVE FAITH. END HUNGER.

Turn your faith into action to end hunger.

TODAY, APRIL 6

Bread for the World's Offering of Letters aims to realize a world in which all of God's children are fed. Our goal is to create political will by writing our policy makers and urging them to create pathways out of hunger and poverty.

Join the Hunger Ministry Team following each worship service in McFarland Hall as we turn our faith into action by writing letters to our members of Congress. For more information on this year's Offering of Letters go to Bread.org/go/OL

Quotations:

Ingredients for Jim Lahey's No-Work Bread:

4 cups all-purpose or bread flour, plus flour for dusting
Scant ½ teaspoon instant yeast
2 teaspoons salt
2 cups water about 70°F
2 tablespoons extra virgin olive oil (optional)
Cornmeal, semolina, or wheat bran as needed

—from Mark Bittman

“For somehow, beneath this gorgeous paradigm of unnecessary being, lies the Act by which it exists. You have just now reduced it to its parts, shivered it into echoes, and pressed it to a memory, but you have also caught that hint that a thing is more than the sum of all the insubstantialities that comprise it. Hopefully, you will never again argue that the solidities of the world are mere matters of accident, creatures of air and darkness, temporary and meaningless shapes out of nothing. Perhaps now you have seen at least simply that the uniqueness of creation are the result of continuous creative support, or effective regard by no mean lover. [God] likes onions, therefore they are. The fit, the colors, the smell, the tensions, the tastes, the textures, the lines, the shapes are a response, not to some forgotten decree that there may as well be onions as turnips, but to His present delight—His intimate and immediate joy in all you have seen, and in the thousand other wonders you do not even suspect. With Peter, the onion says, Lord, it us good for us to be here. Yes, says God. Tov. Very good.”

—Robert Farrar Capon, The Supper of the Lamb

* Affirmation of Faith

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers of the People and the Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

SUNDAY EVENING WORSHIP

BEACH SPRING

In the Spirit let us travel, open to each other's pain, let our loves and fears unravel, celebrate the space we gain:
there's a place for deepest dreaming, there's a time for heart to care, in the Spirit's lively scheming there is always room to spare!

Quotations:

Ezekiel 4: 9-17

9 And you, take wheat and barley, beans and lentils, millet and spelt; put them into one vessel, and make bread for yourself. During the number of days that you lie on your side, three hundred ninety days, you shall eat it. 10 The food that you eat shall be twenty shekels a day by weight; at fixed times you shall eat it. 11 And you shall drink water by measure, one-sixth of a hin; at fixed times you shall drink. 12 You shall eat it as a barley-cake, baking it in their sight on human dung. 13 The Lord said, "Thus shall the people of Israel eat their bread, unclean, among the nations to which I will drive them." 14 Then I said, "Ah Lord God! I have never defiled myself; from my youth up until now I have never eaten what died of itself or was torn by animals, nor has carrion flesh come into my mouth." 15 Then he said to me, "See, I will let you have cow's dung instead of human dung, on which you may prepare your bread."

16 Then he said to me, Mortal, I am going to break the staff of bread in Jerusalem; they shall eat bread by weight and with fearfulness; and they shall drink water by measure and in dismay. 17 Lacking bread and water, they will look at one another in dismay, and waste away under their punishment.

"Even though Martha was doing a good and holy work by serving Jesus, Mary was attentive to the essence of Christ her savior, sitting in absolute stillness, oblivious to all around her, with her secret love pressing high upon the cloud of knowing between God and herself. . . . It was to Mary that Jesus appeared after his resurrection. Between them was a deep and overwhelming love that transformed the sinfulness of her past and made of her the one best beloved."

FELLOWSHIP AND EDUCATION

Making Mystics Out of Cheeses The Life and Works of Flannery O'Connor

"What I am asking for is really very ridiculous. Oh Lord, I am saying, at present I am a cheese, make me a mystic immediately. But then God can do that—make mystics out of cheeses."

—Flannery O'Connor, A Prayer Journal

WEDNESDAYS THROUGH APRIL 9, 6:30-8 PM

During five Wednesday nights in Lent, Dr. Richard Baker will lead a discussion on O'Connor's life, her writing, and the larger themes of each: how grace changes us, why it is painful, how we resist it, and how God's grace overcomes that resistance.

Radical Hospitality: The Daily Faith Frontier

Ancient and rooted in the Biblical story, hospitality is, at the same time, an emerging frontier of faith and social change. Its recovery from over-professionalization and tea-party politeness is creating heart-reaching, life-changing trajectories for individuals, families, and communities. It is difficult and risky, but its outcomes are transformational. Are you ready for this?
